Frederic Man Killed In Automobile Accident

William Tuck, 35, of Frederic, was killed Friday, Sept. 25, about 9:07 p.m. when the vehicle he was driving slid into a ditch on Batterson Rd. south of County Road 612. Tuck was thrown from the vehicle and four emergency medical technicians from Lyon Twp., who witnessed the accident, immediately began CPR when they couldn't find a pulse on Tuck. He was pronounced dead at Mercy Hospital after being transported by the Frederic Ambulance Corps. Barbara Buangardner, 37, a passenger in the vehicle, was injured and also taken to Mercy Hospital. An obituary for Tuck appears inside.

The accident is still under investigation by the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. The sheriff dept. report said the driver had been drinking and neither person was wearing a seat belt.

Mobile Home Destroyed by Fire

A mobile home rented by John Gugin, 73, in Grayling Township was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon, Sept. 25. Gugin and his five dogs were not harmed. The fire started in the ceiling where a chimney flue went through. The mobile home, owned by Muriel Poff, of Tennessee, was located off North Down River Road east of Stephan Bridge.

Child Registry Program To Start Here Soon

The Crawford County Sheriff's Department in association with the Grayling State Bank will soon begin a child registry program in the elementary grades of the Crawford-AuSable School system.

The program will be handled on a class by class basis with each child receiving a 24-page book to be kept in a safe place in case of an emergency. The book consists of pages for photos of your child, personal information on the child and the parents, medical and dental information and charts, and your child's fingerprints. The information pages of the handbook are to be prepared by you and your child with the exception of the fingerprint card. The fingerprints will be taken by members of the Sheriff's Department at your child's school. The card will be returned with the rest of the book to you.

Authorization letters must be completed and brought to school with your child on the day we will be fingerprinting his/her class. You will be notified in advance of the day your child's class is scheduled for fingerprinting. A student will not be fingerprinted without a signed authorization form.

Suspect Arrested in Connection With Theft of $2800 in Cash

Crawford County Sheriff deputies arrested a man on a charge of larceny over $100 in connection with the theft of $2800 in cash from a woman's home. The woman told police on Sept. 25 that $2800 in cash kept in a drawer in her bedroom had been taken.

Later that day sheriff deputies arrested a suspect who had been staying with the victim periodically. No names were released by police.

CHAMPION BUS DRIVER — Donald Boone of the Crawford County Transportation Authority accepts his first-place trophy from Michigan Department of Transportation Bus Transit Administrator Frank DeRose after scoring highest at the 1987 statewide small-bus roadeo at Lansing. He scored 566 points of a possible 600. A driver since 1982, Boone has competed in roadeo for three years, placing sixth in the 1986 event.

Boone Wins 1987 State Small-Bus Driver Contest

Michigan's 1987 champion small-bus driver is Donald Boone of the Crawford County Transportation Authority.

He scored highest (566 points of a possible 600) among small-bus drivers from across the state who competed in the 12th annual small-bus "roadeo" in Lansing Sept. 24. Boone has been driving for the Grayling-based transit system since 1982.

Placing second in the competition, with 561 points, was Milton Yorks, driving for the Western Michigan Center for the Handicapped, Inc. of Muskegon. Yorks has driven for them since 1983, after five years as a school-bus driver.

Greg Prell, a driver for the Alpena Dial-A-Ride transit system since 1983, placed third with a score of 545.

The morning-long competition included a written test covering rules of the road and driving attitudes for bus drivers, a pre-trip inspection of the bus, and a driving test through a course set up with specific driving problems.

A dozen officers from Lansing-area law enforcement agencies were the judges.

The "roadeo" is co-sponsored by the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) and the Michigan Public Transit Association (MPTA) to encourage drivers of small buses to drive carefully and provide the best service and courtesy to riders.

County-Wide Drive Starts For Foster Care Parents

By Don Geiss

Somewhere in Crawford County there are families who might, as foster care parents, like to take teenagers under their wing and a drive is now being conducted to locate those concerned adults.

According to Joanne Riebschleger, Professional Parent Program project coordinator, at any given time there are teenagers from 13 to 17 years old who need a long term residence. She said these young people have been shifted from one living environment to another and many have no viable family with which to live.

The parent recruitment program began September 28 and will continue through October 11 and is sponsored by the North Central Community Mental Health organization. Riebschleger said that success of the drive depends on families reading the local newspaper ads or the news story and then getting in touch with the local office.

Riebschleger pointed out that the program matches couples with good parenting skills to children that need them. She said, "Healthy families can provide a new, enriching environment for children with multiple problems including truancy, running away or minor legal offenses." She noted that there is compensation in the amount of $24.50 per day or about $745 per month for serving as a professional parent.

The idea of a local drive is based on the theory that it is better for a young person to be housed in their home territory. To qualify, parents must be sincerely interested in helping young people grow and working as a part of a professional team. They must be at least 18 years of age, in good health and have adequate space in their homes for an additional child.

Riebschleger said that after a prospective foster care parent contacts the local office (348-7180) a packet will be sent to them further explaining the program. The adults will then fill out an application which is supplied in the initial packet, she commented. An appointment will then be made for a home visit where the program will be further discussed. Once a commitment of interest is made the family will be screened and they will be notified if accepted of the time and place of an initial training program. That training program consists of 16-19 hours and will be conducted in the evenings or on weekends.

Once the young person is matched with a family there is a series of trial visits, usually over a weekend, Riebschleger said. An additional day or so training program will be conducted every three months after the child is permanently assigned, she said. She emphasized that before a permanent assignment is made both the foster parents and the child must agree that it is appropriate.

The professional parents are not alone in the venture, Riebschleger said, because they are a part of a team. The team may include social

Court Case On River Use Rules Dropped by DNR

By Don Geiss

After a 15-year court battle, the Department of Natural Resources has dropped the suit which originated when they attempted to limit the number of canoes on four Michigan streams.

In 1970 the DNR established a set of rules which would have limited the number of both commercial and private canoes in specified sections of the entire AuSable and Manistee Rivers as well as the Pere Marquette and Pine Rivers.

The Recreational Canoeing Association, which is an organization of canoe livery owners, took the DNR to court complaining that the state was attempting to violate their constitutional right to do business. The case progressed through the court system, ending in the Michigan Supreme Court where it was referred back to the Wexford County Circuit Court.

The Supreme Court agreed that the DNR had the right to manage the streams but instructed them to prove actual environmental damage. That issue apparently was never proven and the case languished in the court files.

Attorney Ron Wilson, who represented the Grayling area residents in the suit against the DNR on no-kill, was the legal representative for the canoe livery owners. In a TV interview he commented that the suit was dropped because the rules had become outdated and ineffective. He pointed out that two of the streams, the Pere Marquette and Pine, now had a form of canoe control because they have been included under the Federal Wild and Scenic Rivers Act.

Steve Southard of Ray's Canoe Livery in Grayling said that the decision to drop the case had a good side and bad side. He said that on the good side the state could not prove that canoes cause environmental damage. On the bad side, he said, it removes the pressure for the canoe owners and DNR to compromise and come up with the best plan for protecting the rivers. He pointed out that the numbers of canoeists have actually dropped by about one third since the rules were first proposed. He suggested that there had been a fixation on numbers of canoes rather than behavior patterns and additional law enforcement.

Roger Bielfus of the Baldwin Canoe Rental, who was president of the association at the time of the court battles, told the Avalanche that the state could still take some sort of action. He noted that since the Supreme Court acknowledged the DNR's right to manage the streams, they could work on some other plan to make multiple use of the streams by anglers, residents and canoeists operate more smoothly.

$83,880 Grant Aimed At Helping 50 Substance Abuse Traffic Violators

By Don Geiss

New Life Community Services of Crawford County has been given a grant of $83,880 by the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning for a program to counsel, educate and place in employment 50 substance abuse traffic violators.

Robert C. Smock, of Grayling, who will be director of the project, said that Roscommon and Crawford Counties will be the target areas for the program. He said that substance abuse traffic violators often face a number of barriers to meaningful lives. He noted that these include poor self esteem, substance abuse problems, a criminal record, and poor reading and math skills or lack of high school diploma.

Smock also observed that additional barriers are now of employability skills, absence of marketable skills, inadequate or no work experience and cultural and environmental deprivation. He said that to reduce these barriers the program will assess, enroll and provide education, counseling and/or employment services to a minimum of 50 eligible district court violators.

A minimum of 12 abusers will be placed in private sector employment and a minimum of 24 will go into community service employment by June 30, 1988. Ten substance violators will be provided G.E.D. and remedial education and a minimum of 15 will have individual and/or family counseling. To reduce the number of persons returning to crime by 40 percent is an important goal of the program, Smock said.

The sponsoring organization, New Life Community Services, is an agency that provides human services to three counties in northern Michigan. It began as a prison ministry program designed to help offenders in the Crawford County Jail, Camp Shawono and Camp Lehman. It is the human services arm of St. Francis Episcopal Church in Grayling and has as its board chairman the Rev. Derik Roy.

Smock said that the individuals who will be involved with the program could be enrolled in any or all of the components of the project at the same time. He commented that four staff members including three counselors and a secretary will be employed with funds from the grant. He anticipates that these persons will be on hand day or night to work with the participants. The project begins on October 1 and will continue until September 30, 1988.

Mercy Hospital Adds Mobile CAT Scanner

Mobile CT scanning services will begin serving Grayling area patients this fall following approval of a certificate of need from the Michigan Department of Public Health. Mercy Hospital in Grayling and two other northern Michigan hospitals will be sharing the mobile service.

A CT scanner (computed tomography: CAT scanner) is a donut-shaped device which encircles the patient, utilizing advanced X-ray and computer technology to provide vivid images of the body's interior, including the brain. Radiologists use CT scans to diagnose conditions such as internal bleeding, aneurysms, tumors and potential stroke. Mercy Hospital's Radiologist, Dr. Patrick McNamara, has had extensive training in computed tomography and will be supervising the physician input and supervision of the mobile CT route.

Besides Mercy, hospitals benefiting from the new CT scanner will include Otsego Memorial Hospital in Gaylord, and Community Memorial Hospital in Cheboygan. Mercy and the two other hospitals will lease CT scan services from Tech-Share. The mobile scanner will be located at each hospital based on need, as well as for emergency scanning after hours.

"The addition of a CT scan unit will greatly enhance the diagnostic capabilities of physicians at Mercy Hospital and provide a considerable benefit to patients in the area," said Dr. McNamara. "In the past, Grayling area patients were required to travel to hospitals in Traverse City or downstate in order to receive CT scans. Besides saving patients the trip, it's expected that Mercy will be able to provide faster service at lower cost," Dr. McNamara added.

A team consisting of a driver and two CT technologists will staff the mobile unit. The truck will also feature equipment capable of transmitting CT scans by telephone link-up to radiologists at other hospitals in the event that further consultations are desired.

Each of the three hospitals have constructed concrete parking pads and will build connecting corridors to provide protection for patients from the weather. Mercy Hospital has completed work on its pad, with construction of the connecting corridor to be completed later this fall.

Overall, the mobile CT scanner is expected to greatly improve diagnostic services at Mercy Hospital, in addition to strengthening the hospital's links with other health centers in northern Michigan.

The MLS & S Association chose Grayling at the 1987 convention site by a select committee last spring, and requested LMPOA to host the conference.

After enjoying supervised tours of Weyerhaeuser Corp. and Camp Grayling facilities on Friday afternoon, and individually visiting Hartwick Pines, the Depot-Museum and shopping in downtown Grayling Saturday morning, the more than 200 Association members in attendance began participation at numerous seminars. The group was formally welcomed by Garland (Bud) Joyce, Crawford County Commissioner and President of LMPOA, at the first general session. Joyce expressed LMPOA's appreciation for selecting Grayling as the 1987 convention site and expressed his group's appreciation for the invaluable assistance of the local National Guard personnel who, with short notice, provided bus transportation for tour groups through the huge military establishment. The availability and cooperation of Camp Commander Col. Richard Schmidt, LTC

"Pat" Nunn, and LTC "Mick" McNamara impressed the visitors, many of whom were awed by the size, organization and the mission of Camp Grayling. The issues discussed, at the meetings included riparian rights, road-end ordinances, wetlands preservation, water contamination and run-off and liability insurance for lake association groups. Most issues discussed has implications for Lake Margrethe Association members and appear to be common with many other participating lake and streams groups.

The numerous compliments and comments heard from many visiting participants were positive about the Grayling area, making the possibility of return visits to the area distinctly possible. Joyce said this one more "plus" for Grayling tourism, made possible by LMPOA, Michigan National Guard and the management and personnel of Grayling Holiday Inn.

Two Public Hearings Focus on County Dial-A-Ride Service

By Jon Thompson

Dial-A-Ride services will be the subject of two public hearings set for Wednesday, Oct. 7, from 7-8 p.m. and Wednesday, Oct. 14, from 1:30-2:30 p.m. in the Grayling City Hall council room.

The Crawford County Transportation Authority (CCTA) is looking for input on four main topics:

1) The appropriateness of the Crawford County Dial-A-Ride system's existing hours (6 a.m.-7 p.m. weekdays, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Sunday).

2) The appropriateness of Dial-A-Ride continuing to operate 7 days a week.

3) Defining a rate structure which best serves the public.

4) The suitability of the system continuing to transport packages.

CCTA director David Frederick said more expected federal funding cutbacks are prompting the board to look at the system to see if it can be more efficient. He said the public review of the system is something that should be done periodically anyway.

The Crawford County Dial-A-Ride system will probably carry around 130,000 passengers this year. That's the equivalent of carrying every man, woman, and child in Crawford County at least 12 times a year. No other Dial-A-Ride system in the state comes close to carrying the population it serves that many times. Other systems average carrying its area population 3-4 times a year.

The Crawford County Dial-A-Ride is also the only system in the state working 7 days a week. Frederick said most other systems operate five days a week.

Senior citizens, children younger than 12, and handicapped persons currently receive half price fares on the Crawford County Dial-A-Ride. The fare can be as low as 25 cents or as much as $1.25 for an adult paying full fare for a ride county line to county line.

3 Persons To Lead '88 Winter Carnival

By Don Geiss

Shannon McNamara, Paula Buchanan, and Chris Holtz have agreed to serve as chairpersons of the 1988 Winter Carnival.

The announcement was made recently by Holtz, office manager of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce. She said that there has been no decision yet on the dates of the carnival but indicated it would be toward the end of January or first part of February. Any ideas about new events or locations will be gratefully accepted, she commented. Volunteers will also be welcome, she said.

On another matter of chamber developments, Col. Dick Schmidt discussed activities of the Military Affairs Committee at the recent Board of Directors meeting. He said that next year will be the 75th anniversary of Camp Grayling and that appropriate events will be scheduled to celebrate the birthday.

Schmidt also observed that a reception had been held by the committee in Chicago at the annual military meeting. He noted that there are additional units interested in training at the camp.

Events Chairman Bob Ruddy announced that the Orange Coat Roundup will once again be headquartered at Skip's Sport Shop. He requested that volunteers who are not deer hunters would be welcome since there are many tasks to be accomplished during the event as well as preparatory jobs.

Ruddy also announced that special events next year will include a Casino Royale in conjunction with the Winter Carnival. Board member Randy Thompson agreed to again chair the event.

Ruddy also said that a concert is tentatively planned for spring and a golf tournament will be held in the fall.

Board member Norma Naour detailed plans for two Business After Hours Social gatherings. The two sessions planned are from 5 to 7 p.m. on October 8 and December 22.

On another matter Thompson detailed plans for a brochure tailored to hand out to every National Guard soldier at Camp Grayling during the summer. It would not only explain recreational opportunities in the area but would also describe services available by category of goods and services. He said plans call for obtaining funding to have 40,000 of the brochures printed and for placing one in each guard's hand.

workers, child counselors, teachers and psychologists, she noted. These individuals meet with the parents during the training periods, she said. They also stay in touch through regular visits of staff consultants who are also on call 24 hours per day, she commented.

"This is the first time that an all-out drive for volunteer parents has been conducted in Crawford County," Riebschleger said, "although it was successfully held in Wexford County." The parent program is a recent addition to the responsibility of Community Mental Health, she said. It was formerly a part of the Social Services Department and a license for the foster care home is still issued through them," she observed.

If desired, interested parents can call the local office at 348-7160 to make an appointment to meet with one of the staff members for additional information.

Riebschleger said, "If a family is flexible, has a willingness to accept a challenge and a true liking for working with kids, then a call to the local office will 'set the wheels in motion' to become a professional parent."

Northern Views

By Jon Thompson

Murphy's Law is well known at the Avalanche. If anything can go wrong, it will.

We can publish a 24-page paper and one little speck the size of this period (.) will jump on a page at the printer's. Guess where that speck will land? On a black line or off in a corner where it won't be noticed?

Nope, the little bugger (Izzie at Central Printing calls these specks kittywhompases) will show up on a picture right on someone's teeth or nose.

I came across a list of 18 sayings called Murphy's Fundamental Laws. The first one, the most well-known, could also be nicknamed the Detroit Lions' motto.

1. If Anything Can Go Wrong, Invariably It Will.

2. Nothing Is Ever As Simple As It First Seems.

3. Everything You Decide To Do Costs More Than First Estimated.

4. Every Activity Takes More Time Than You Have.

5. By Trying To Please Everybody, Somebody Will Be Displeased.

6. It Is A Fundamental Law Of Nature That Nothing Ever Quite Works Out.

7. It Is Easier To Make A Commitment Or To Get Involved In Something Than To Get Out Of It.

8. Whatever You Set Out To Do, Something Else Must Be Done First.

9. If You Improve Or Tinker With Something Long Enough, Eventually It Will Break Or Misfunction.

10. By Making Something Absolutely Clear, Someone Will Become Confused.

11. Every Clarification Breeds New Questions.

12. You Can Fool Some Of The People All Of The Time And All Of The People Some Of The Time And That Is Sufficient.

13. Persons Disagreeing With Your Facts Are Always Emotional And Employ Faulty Reasoning.

14. Enough Research Will Tend To Support Your Conclusions.

15. The Greater The Importance Of Decisions To Be Made The Larger Must Be The Committee Assigned To Make Them.

16. The More Urgent The Need For Decision The Less Apparent Becomes The Identity Of The Decision-maker.

17. The More Complex The Idea Or Technology The More Simple-Minded Is The Opposition.

18. Each Profession Talks To Itself In Its Own Unique Language. Apparently There Is No Rosetta Stone.

I thought of one more — The Detroit Tigers' worst losses of the year will always occur on televised games. Do you have any of your own Murphy's Laws? Send them to me at the Avalanche and we'll publish them.

Letters to the Editor

Defeat of Ambulance Millage May Have Been Mistake

Dear Editor,

The election is over and millage for the county ambulance service was defeated. Added taxes is not a popular topic — most of us are weary of trying to keep up with the cost.

But we may have made a grave error in not supporting our county ambulance service. We have probably sent our county officials a clear message that we no longer need or want a county supported ambulance service. They have to supply us with fire and police protection, but they do not have to supply us with ambulance service.

More information, pro and con, was needed to be published prior to the election. Someone didn't do their homework.

The county ambulance personnel are volunteers. These people for years have taken the time and interest to become educated and continue their education so they can come to your emergency at all hours, for hours, in all weather conditions to make sure you are transported safely to a medical facility.

These volunteers are unable to enjoy a good night's sleep, weekends off, or be home for sure on holidays. These people must be special because it isn't the fee they are receiving for these trips that motivates them. They are interested and care for the people in this community and they need to know you care.

But because our community is growing and times are changing, volunteers alone are not the whole answer. People must work and employers can not allow their employees in community service to leave whenever we need them.

So I guess the bottom line is what we can afford to do, or not to do. Do you have a guarantee that you won't be the next person who needs an ambulance? Are you willing to risk losing our county ambulance service? Are you interested enough to help try to solve the problem with some input? Are you willing, given a second chance, to support the service? Let the commissioners know how this community feels.

Some thoughts of mine are: the added sum on your taxes for ambulance service is quite inexpensive insurance. If your share was $50 annually (and many people's share won't be that high) it would not total in five years what you will pay for one trip to Petoskey. The proposed millage was only to be levied for five years.

County service has to answer to their constituents, private service does not. County service accepts medicare and medicaid, private service does not have to. County service tries to be affordable. Private service, through no fault of their own, has to charge accordingly to stay in business.

What if you can't afford private service and the county quits operating a service. Who do you call? And if you use private service and don't pay, is there a collection agency?

In our rapidly growing community, are you sure one ambulance service is sufficient?

Back in the seventies we had chuck holes in the streets and they became a not so funny joke. But we as a community solved our problem and are very proud of these streets now. Maybe a special tax is needed here to support an equally worthwhile cause.

Another facet that should be considered strongly is taking the money that is presently generated by the ambulance service out of the general fund and earmarking it for ambulance service and that maybe is the fairest of all solutions.

So be careful in becoming too passive on this subject. What you may lose may be hazardous to your health.

Cigarette Tax Hike Proposed To Fund AIDS Treatment

By Warren M. Hoyt
Michigan Press Association

Sen. William Sederburg (R-East Lansing), chair of the Senate Health Policy Committee, has proposed increasing the state tax on cigarettes and imposing a new tax on cigars and smokeless tobacco products to fund a new health initiative for AIDS prevention and control, tobacco-related and other preventable diseases.

The tobacco-related funding mechanism, Mr. Sederburg projected, would raise $86.4 million annually for an AIDS Treatment Trust Fund, an AIDS and Risk Reduction Policy Commission, clearinghouse and media campaign and other wellness programs located within the Department of Public Health.

Sederburg proposed a 6-cent per package increase in the cigarette tax and a new tax of 10 cents per ounce on smokeless tobacco such as chewing tobacco, snuff and bulk tobacco.

The cigarette tax proposal would increase the per pack rate from 21 to 27 cents in Michigan.

He further proposed a new tax of 1 cent on small cigars and 5 cents on large cigars.

Dennis Muchmore, representing the Washington, D.C.-based Tobacco Institute, said the average state cigarette tax rate is 19.04 cents per pack and the Sederburg proposed increase would move Michigan from 18th place to 5th place nationally in the amount of tax levied on cigarettes.

He added the increase would also make Michigan the highest of all contiguous states with Wisconsin at 25 cents, Ohio at 18 cents and Indiana at 15.5 cents.

Muchmore also said there is no logical connection between earmarking revenues from a tobacco tax increase and a proposed AIDS trust fund other than it simply provides a source of revenue.

Sederburg said the nation's number one health risk has been smoking and the concept of taxing tobacco products to reduce the risk is worthy of legislative consideration.

He said public interest and concern has been supportive of the plan and a tobacco tax increase may be passed by the Legislature over industry lobbyists because "the tobacco industry is increasingly falling out of favor with the general public."

He said that of the $86.4 million projected, $48 million would go toward an AIDS Treatment Trust Fund and $38.4 million would go toward risk reduction activities.

Risk reduction activities would include $5.1 million for the Center for Health Promotion; $4 million for AIDS education programs, $15.3 million for guaranteed confidential testing and counseling, $6 million for worksite risk education programs, $1 million for a health care provider program and $4 million for local referral and care network grants.

Sederburg also said the proposed health initiative includes additional smoke free legislative initiatives.

These would include a youth tobacco act prohibiting youth to purchase and use smokeless tobacco products and cigarettes; bills to establish day care centers, health facility and smoke free schools; eliminating billboard advertising for smokeless tobacco; and strengthening amendments to the Clean Indoor Air Act expanding enforcement and areas of inclusion such as shopping malls and other public places.

Robertson a Winner? Maybe.

by Richard Milliman

THE REV. PAT Robertson of Virginia is making a few ripples in the Republican presidential process these days — almost a year before delegates will gather in national convention to pick their choice to succeed President Ronald Reagan.

Maybe it's because Mr. Robertson has been so successful in Michigan that his image looms larger on the presidential horizon from this particular vantage point.

Maybe on a broader scale his campaign remains a blip on the national charts. Time and events will tell.

One thing's for certain: The Robertson forces have turned the Michigan Republican picture completely upside down.

AT THIS POINT, Mr. Robertson and his allies in Michigan can have anything they want within the Michigan Republican party. And what they have wanted so far has been control of the central apparatus. That they have.

It started a few months ago when the Robertson forces took over control of the state Republican committee. It was reinforced more recently when the same forces swamped the old guard on a procedural matter which could be important down the road a bit.

In the past, all Republican candidates for county and state offices automatically were at-large delegates to their own county conventions. This practice was halted, however, on a 60-40 vote of the state committee.

The reason? Mainly because most county and state candidates come from the older-line Republicans, and most of them were allied with the George Bush for president campaign — not with Mr. Robertson.

In Michigan Republican circles, most of the usual hierarchy has lined up behind the Bush candidacy. Now they are on the outside of the inner circle, which is occupied prominently by Robertson partisans. The blood continues to flow.

MR. ROBERTSON has pulled a few other surprises, too. Out in Iowa, where caucuses early next year will decide which candidates get Iowa delegate votes for president, party leaders rigged up a popularity contest among contenders. For the cost of a $25 ticket, Republicans could vote for their favorite candidate as well as attend a state party fund-raiser.

Through some diligent grass-roots pushing, Mr. Robertson came out ahead in that Iowa popularity contest. Of 3,843 votes cast, Mr. Robertson received 34 percent; Sen. Robert Dole, from next-door Kansas, received 25 percent, Mr. Bush got 22 percent; Rep. Jack Kemp got 14 percent; former Gov. Pete duPont of Delaware received 4 percent. Another candidate, former secretary of state Alexander Haig, chose not to compete.

Robertson backers were overjoyed; Dole backers were satisfied; Bush backers were dismayed.

The Robertson forces have done quite well in a few other instances, too. They took over Republican party organizations in two South Carolina counties, and came within five votes of taking over the state organization. In Florida, they have overwhelming control of two large counties — Palm Beach and Broward (Ft. Lauderdale).

WHAT DOES all this mean?

For one thing, it means that the Robertson forces understand the nuts and bolts of political operations. They know how to recruit delegates and grass roots workers. They are dedicated, committed individuals with hard nosed political sense. And they have mastered Political Rule No. 1: They know how to count.

It means that the hard core Robertson constituency — based within the fundamentalist religious movement, coupled with the rock-ribbed political conservative movement — can be mobilized for political action. At least, it has been politically motivated and successfully mobilized in several instances.

It means that as the Robertson campaign continues to enjoy success in the presidential political arena, where little was expected by most seasoned observers, the candidate will be subjected to more intense personal scrutiny by an unbelieving media.

And, all in all, it could well mean that Pat Robertson actually can win the Republican nomination for president.

Cyclist Caution Signs Should Be Considered

Dear Editor:

Thank you for printing the article in "Letter to the Editor" entitled "Motorists and bikers have to be more cautious to prevent accidents." I am an owner of property near Headquarters Road and North Down River Road. My children are serious cyclists and train at various times between April and October on most of the county roads between Grayling and Gaylord. Unfortunately, many of the drivers on the less congested roads drive much too fast and are not aware of cyclists.

I think it is important for the county commissioners in Roscommon, Crawford and Otsego counties to consider putting up bicyclists caution signs to alert the vehicular traffic on the various county roads. A similar precaution should be taken with the National Guard which is constantly using these roads.

Thanks again for making the public more aware of cyclists in the Grayling area. Certainly, you are also correct that cyclists should wear ANSI rated headgear and should wear clothing that is easily recognized. Also, when cars are coming, cyclists should ride in a single file. Regardless, motorists should realize that many cyclists are riding on rather expensive equipment, (a normal lightweight racing bicycle will cost between $1,500 and $3,000) and to ride these bikes, with ultra light tires and aerodynamic rims, on the gravel shoulder is more dangerous than being on the highway.

Thanks again for your concern.

Sincerely yours,
Stephen F. Cohen

Church Bell Rings for Freedom

To the Editor:

It was interesting to read about the Constitution Ceremony at the Courthouse. I was at St. John Lutheran Church that day when our Pastor Jerry Mueller rang our church bell...200 seconds by the clock. I stood outside because I love to hear it ring. There was not a sound in Grayling, when it stopped.

The bell was given to our Congregation by Nels Peter Olson over 90 years ago and is now the only one in town. Since all the bells ceased on Sunday morning, there is something missing. I do hope some persons heard that inspiring sound as it rang for our Freedom.

Canadian Reader Didn't Appreciate Tongue-in-Cheek Letter From Resident

Sir:

I was born and raised in Grayling. I've been reading the Avalanche since the late 1920's. Never have I read such absolute garbage as the letter from Gary Harland, whoever he is. That a decent newspaper would print such garbage amazes me.

My family and I have lived in Canada for the past thirty years. We are still American citizens but know what is meant by an "ugly American." He is one.

Canada has its faults but god knows so does the U.S.A. Look at the USA from beyond its borders and one really sees some of its faults but then most Americans don't know what goes on beyond its borders — even some in Grayling only 150 miles away.

The Harland letter was utterly stupid. Maybe I missed the point but the U.S.A. doesn't have so many friends in the world that it can afford to insult one of the few that it has — Canada.

You, Mr. Editor owe Canada an apology.

Where O' Where Have The Chamber Members Gone

By Don Geiss

It is difficult to believe but many Crawford County businesses have not paid dues this year to the very organization designed to increase their trade.

Excuses for not joining the chamber run the gamut of known complaints such as "it does not help my business" to new issues which for the sake of common sense we will not mention here.

There was a lot of negative comment by business owners about the need to cut back financially by eliminating the position of executive and replacing it with an office manager. As we saw it then and still see it there was no choice because the revenue was not sufficient to pay an executive and promote the chamber.

We write from first hand experience after spending about a year doing the promotion for the chamber when we say there should be little excuse for not joining the chamber. We heartily recommend to anyone who has doubts about the need, that they spend a couple of days during the tourist season in the chamber office.

The telephone rings off the hook with persons requesting information about where to stay and what type of activities are on "tap." It would take pages to elaborate on the special calls. Probably the most calls are about where to obtain lodging followed closely (in season) by a weather report.

Presently the chamber business is being handled by Chris Holtz, the office manager and a number of volunteers. The in-house services as well as the secretarial work is being efficiently handled. Tourists have their questions answered and functions are being scheduled and held.

All of this is for the benefit of the business community and still many of them have refused to come together in a joint effort to sell the area to visitors.

We salute the board members who volunteer to do most of the chamber work. We acknowledge the many members in good standing who have always supported the chamber and the need for a common effort.

It should not be necessary to prompt businesses to join because of the nature of our dependency on tourists. Come on folks, let the chamber board know their activities are supported by overwhelming Holtz with checks this month.

Local Performers Contribute To 'Mostly Mozart' Musicales

The upcoming fall musicale, "Mostly Mozart" will be displaying a variety of talent. The quality of this event to be held October 11 at Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church continues to rise as more "home-grown" talent emerges from this part of Northern Michigan. Wonderful, new performers will appear this year along with the best from years past.

Two new performers will be combining efforts. Sandy Stanley and Betty Thomas will join their lovely voices for the duet, "Sull'aria" from The Marriage of Figaro.

Sandy Stanley graduated from North Dakota State University with a minor in vocal music. While there, she sang with several college choirs, but has been involved with choral music since her solo debut at age 2½. Sandy is presently a special education consultant and teacher for COOR Intermediate School District.

The other half of this musical duo, Betty Thomas, studied at the Detroit Institute of Musical Arts. She is a past choir director and soloist with the Presbyterian Church in Detroit. Although her family has vacationed in this area for over 50 years, Higgins Lake became her permanent retirement home 6 years ago. Betty is still active in vocal music as a member of the Congregational Church Choir in Roscommon.

Arthur Kerle's talent with the flute has been a true highlight for this fall musicale in years past, and his performance this year promises to be nothing less. Accompanied by Mrs. Janet Dice on the piano, Art will play the first movement of Mozart's Flute Concerto No. 1 in G Major.

Since beginning the flute in elementary school, Art was a member of the Michigan All State High School Band at Interlochen, and while at Hope College, was a member of the Hope College Symphonette. Today he shares his flute music as both soloist and choir accompanist with Michelson United Methodist Church. In among his activities with music, nature photography, cross country skiing, kayaking, and fly-tying, Dr. Kerle finds time for his prospering Grayling area dental practice.

Those interested in tickets ($3.00) for the "Mostly Mozart" musicale may contact Michelson Methodist Church (348-2974), Mrs. Janet Dice (348-8808), or any program participant. Concerts at 3 and 7 p.m. will be held at Michelson Church, 400 Michigan Avenue. This concert is being sponsored in part by the Michigan Council for the Arts Touring Agency.

The award was presented during recent social events at the American Legion Post celebration.

Bulletin Helps Balance Your Retirement Budget

Military
 Army National Guard 1st Lt. Mandi A. Stillwagon, daughter of Merry L. Meredith and stepdaughter of Joseph M. Meredith of 4826 Dawn Drive, Grayling, has completed the Army's adjutant general officer basic course at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

The course was designed to prepare newly commissioned Adjutant General's Corps officers for their first duty assignment. The training included instruction in leadership, administration, military staff relationships and the Army personnel system.

Her father and stepmother, Michael and Dolores Stillwagon, reside at 855 Anderson, New Port Richie, Fla.

The lieutenant is a 1982 graduate of Grayling High School.

When you retire, you can forget about many of the daily demands and routines you dealt with as a working person. One challenge, however, will continue with you into your retirement years - keeping your expenses in line with your income.

You no longer have to worry about being laid off or losing your job, but you have to be concerned about your retirement income keeping up with inflation. Your retirement income may come from several sources and each may relate differently to inflation. That is, some may keep up, grow faster or be fixed — not grow with inflation.

If some of your income is fixed, such as an annuity of a pension, you will need to increase other income or cut expenses as time passes.

A new Extension bulletin, "Balancing Your Retirement Budget," E-2057, deals with these concerns. It discusses ways to increase income, including working after retirement; managing savings and investments; and getting income for the equity in your home.

It looks as such key expenses as health care and housing. And it helps you determine how much income the survivor would have after the death of a spouse.

You can get a copy of this bulletin from your county Cooperative Extension Service office.

Viking Girls Undefeated With 5-0 Season Mark

Grayling raced on to a perfect 5-0 mark with two victories opening league play. The Vikings were in control both games beating Petoskey 52-41 and Boyne City 50-36 last week.

Against Petoskey everyone on the team played about a half as Grayling ran to a 10-0 lead and never looked back.

Lori Gust scored 12 points to lead the team with Carrie Trudgeon who scored 12 points, had 8 assists, and 6 rebounds. Melanie Ojala had 8 points, 5 assists, and 9 rebounds. A.J. Pratt scored 8, Jenny Money had 6, Deanna Phelps had 4 and Linda Goodale 2.

Against a tall Boyne City squad, Grayling used its speed to get the big players in foul trouble. Grayling had a 32-13 half lead but soon got into its own foul trouble.

Everyone on the team played at least one quarter. Viking coach Howard Lehti said the team is young and making mistakes but they hope to keep hustling and learning.

Jenny Money had her best game so far with 10 rebounds, 4 assists, and 8 points. Trudgeon also had a good game with 15 points, 5 rebounds, and 4 assists. Ojala scored 8, Gust 6, Pratt 5, Phelps 4, Goodale 2, and Patty Tremblay 2. Gust added 8 rebounds, Tremblay 6, and Laurie Goss had 2 rebounds and 1 assist.

A.J. Pratt scored a three-point basket, the first GHS varsity player to hit the new shot.

The J.V. team also won their first two league games whipping Petoskey 41-16 and handling Boyne City 38-21.

J.V. coach Dallas Hudson said it was a team effort in the big win over Petoskey. Heather Stephenson scored 8, Aimee Rochette 6, Nicole Meagher 5, Anne Petrosky 5, Nikki Morrill 4, Lisa Barber 3, Claudine Allen 2, Nicole Trenary 2, Andrea Flowers 2, Jennifer Walsh 2, and Christa Wyman 2.

Against Boyne, Grayling

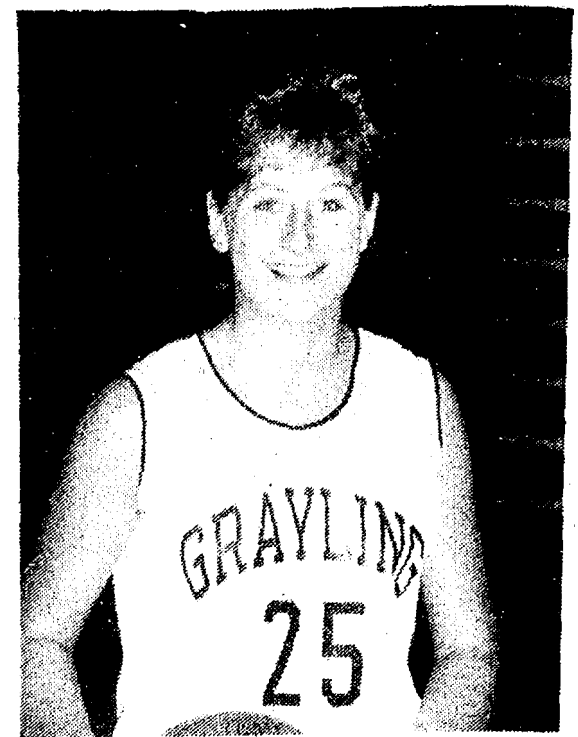

overcame a slow 2nd quarter by rebounding well and playing good defense against a bigger Boyne team.

Heather Stephenson led the team with 17 points and 11 rebounds. Allen scored 10 points including 2 three-point shots. Morrill added 4, Peggy Kraus 2, Andrea Flowers 2, Barber 2, and Petrosky 1. Trenary and Kraus helped the team with their rebounding.

Vikings Top Class C Foe Rogers City 27-20

Grayling goes for its second win in a row Friday at Gaylord after beating Rogers City 27-20 last week.

The Vikings came from behind after trailing 14-13 and hung on at the end for their first win of the season.

Grayling struck first on a 70-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Palmer from Chris Skidmore. Tom Shively kicked the extra point. Rusty Argue had a short touchdown run in the second quarter to make the score 14-13 at half. Rogers City scored twice in the first half and made a two-point conversion.

In the third quarter the Vikings marched to a touchdown to take the lead for good. Jeff Wolcott scored the touchdown on the ground. In the 4th quarter Wolcott scored again and Rusty Argue scored a two-point conversion to give Grayling all their points.

Rogers City came back to score to make it 27-20 and gave it one last shot on a final drive starting at their own 5-yard line with 25 seconds to go. Rogers City kept completing passes until they had the ball on Grayling's 2-yard line with 5 seconds to go. Rogers City completed another pass over the middle and Tom Shively made a game-saving tackle stopping the receiver on the one-foot line.

Viking head coach Don Stowers said a number of Grayling players had good offensive games. Jeff Wolcott rushed for 31 times gaining 190 yards and two touchdowns. He also had a 25-yard kick-off return. Jeff Palmer caught 3 passes for 94 yards and one touchdown. On the 70-yard touchdown pass, coach Stowers credited quarterback Marty Jung for being alert enough to call an automatic at the line of scrimmage and it resulted in a touchdown.

Stowers said the entire offensive line has improved and center Jayson Welser, guard Flaskie Robins, and running back Rusty Argue did well blocking as Grayling gained more than 215 yards.

On defense Stowers said left end Steve Lehti did an outstanding job. The Vikings held Rogers City to only 21 yards rushing. John Gay had 12 tackles and 2 quarterback sacks. Jung had 7 tackles, Shively had 7 tackles and 1 sack, and Brian Kernstock made 2 open-field tackles on kick-off returns. Jung had another good game-punting. He averaged 39 yards a punt, kicked a 62-yarder, and punted to Rogers City's five-yard line at the end of the game.

Grayling is 1-2 in the league, 1-3 overall, but is 1-0 in the class C division of the Michigan Huron Shores Conference.

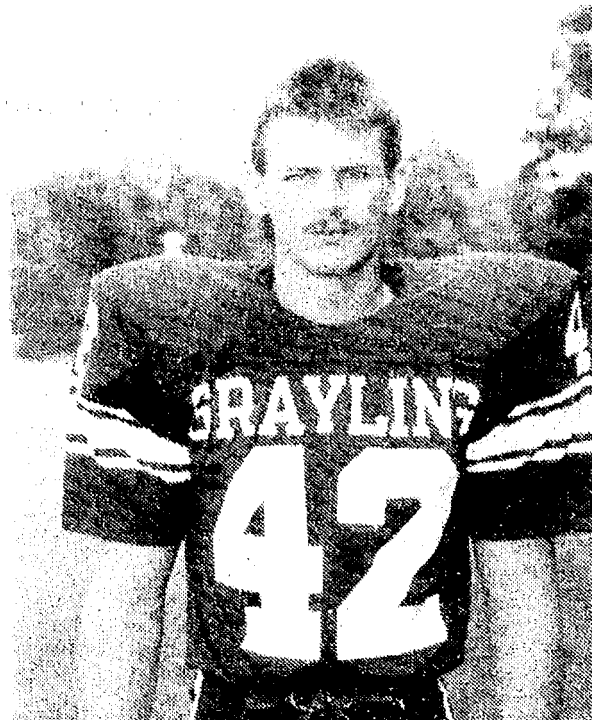

The Grayling J.V.'s also won their first game last week against Rogers City 36-0. Everyone played in the shutout. Viking coach Fred Wolcott said Chris Bind-schatel did a great job quarterbacking and the entire defensive team was excellent. Shane Fraser scored two touchdowns on a 60-yard pass and a 50-yard run. Mick McKinney scored a 55-yard run and added 2 points. Bind-schatel scored on a 7-yard run and Dana Mirate added a touchdown and 2 two-point conversions.

Leading the team defensively were Todd Thorsen, Nathan Ginther, Frank Ginther, Pat Gizinski, Chris Millikin, Kevin Austin, McKinney, and Mirate. Matt Branch had an interception and Chad Bonamie had a good game punting.

New Band Uniforms Make Public Debut

The Viking Marching Band debuted their new marching uniforms at the September 18 home football game. The crowd was impressed by the green and white uniforms with matching helmets. Drum major Linda Denton and the 10 member flag corps' new uniforms matched the band's. Look for the band's next performance at the Oct. 9 homecoming parade, pregame and halftime show.

Band Director Dennis Ormsbee has instituted a program to manage the distribution and handling of the new uniforms. Last summer, the instrument storage room at the high school band room was partitioned to provide a facility for uniform storage and still leave a room for instrument storage. Rob and Judy Woodland, Band Booster members, coordinate issuing uniforms prior to each game, and return uniforms to the new storage facility after each performance. With the new uniforms, Band Boosters also raised funds to purchase protective raincoats as part of the uniform. Band members use the raincoats at each performance not only to protect uniforms from possible rain, but also to protect uniforms from stadium seating.

High school marching band members and flag corps are looking forward to Central Michigan University Band Day on Oct. 3. Director Dennis Ormsbee hopes to take the flag corps, drum major, and the percussion section plus other band members to this event.

At the middle school, the 5-8 grade bands are enjoying the new band room, practice rooms, and instrument storage. With the addition of the fifth grade to the middle school, 71 new band members have joined the middle school band program.

Band Boosters welcomes new members to their growing organization. The Band Boosters' function is to assist the band program in fund raising, assisting at concert and festival performances, help with half-time shows and promote the band program. Members are required to have a willing hand, a big heart, and a place in their schedules for time; no dues are required.

Hook & Trigger Club

property in Lovells Twp., also their activities within 400 feet of the AuSable River.

Following a break for refreshments, Bill Tarr from the D.N.R. spoke on Forest Management. He also stressed that many trees have to be harvested before they start to decay. Following a Question and Answer session, he showed several slides that were of interest to the group.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 6th, at the Lovells Township Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please come and bring a friend.

GHS Announces Homecoming Theme of the 'Fifties'

Each class will try to win the "spirit cup" by competing in daily themes, decorating hallways, showcases, and downtown main-street windows, and floats. Wednesday and Thursday afternoon they will compete in various games and activities.

The parade will be held on Friday. It will start in back of the middle school at 6 o'clock moving from Ogemaw to Peninsular St., to Michigan Ave., to the football field. The cheerleaders will lead the parade followed by the GHS marching band, the homecoming court, Miss Grayling, and community entries.

This year the GHS Alumni Association is having a booth at the football game. They will serve free coffee, cider, and donuts to all GHS Alumni. There will also be a sign-in booth for all GHS Alumni to sign and at half time we will announce the graduate from the earliest graduating class and one who came the farthest.

I Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You
By Bob White
Sales Representative

Here's a football oddity that seems impossible — but it actually happened...A player once ran for only 5 yards — and yet scored 4 touchdowns!...It happened Nov. 4, 1973 when Bobby Douglass of the Chicago Bears carried the ball only 4 times — but one carry was a 2-yard touchdown run, and the other 3 were each 1-yard TD runs...His total yardage gained rushing was 5 yards, but he had scored 4 touchdowns!

Of all the coaches in major-college football history, which one had the most unbeaten-untied teams in regular season play?...Answer is Bear Bryant who had 7 different teams that went unbeaten-untied in the regular season...Next come Joe Paterno and Gil Doble, with 6 each.

Ever hear about the man who was known as the "Ironman of Football"?...He was Leo Lynch who — amazingly — played EVERY minute of EVERY game for Villanova University for 4 YEARS from 1914 through 1917 — never coming out for a substitute on ANY play in ANY game!...That's hard to believe, but true.

I bet you didn't know... that Bob White has now been a salesman at Scheer Motors in Grayling for two years. Bob has lived in the Grayling area for fifteen years after moving here from Flint. If you want to make your next car buying experience one that is fun as well as being profitable, remember Bob White. He's a great guy to know.

Local Student Wins Modeling Contest

Melissa Kellogg, a junior at GHS, was named a Photogenic Model trophy winner in the Amateur Division of the 1987 Michigan Image Freelanse Modeling Photography Contest. The contest was part of the American Image International Freelanse Modeling Photography Contest and photos of Kellogg were entered by Charles Mitchell.

Winners were chosen strictly by the photographs entered, how well they applied make-up, expressions, clothing, poise, following directions, jewelry, and hair styles. The Milford Camera Club did the judging.

Kellogg, 16, wants to pursue a career in modeling. She is the daughter of Duane and Nancy Kellogg, of Grayling. Although Melissa just recently moved to Grayling, she has many roots in the area. She is the great granddaughter of the late John and Katherine Deckrow, of Grayling.

Alumni News

The Grayling High School class of 1957 met for a fun-filled weekend of activities on September 18-20 in the Grayling area. Friday night started the festivities when the group met at Bob and Mickey Strong's place on the AuSable River near Wakeley Bridge. Visiting, reminiscing, and plenty of snacks and Sloppy Joes provided the take-off for the rest of the weekend.

On Saturday morning most of the class met downtown where they started a walking "Treasure Hunt." The clues directed them to diverse places in the business district and finally sent them scurrying back to their cars for the drive to the canoe landing below Stephan Bridge. At the landing they all embarked by canoe to again continue on to the Strong's cottage. Bill Martin, a member of the class gave a thank-you at last Saturday evening's Alumni Banquet to Clara Sorenson for her creativeness in making and placing all of the clues for the previous week's treasure hunt.

Elementary Notes

Insects are neat to look at. Their legs and head are interesting. Because the head has eyes and antenna and the legs have jointed parts. Their eggs are interesting to look at under a microscope. I saw them under a microscope when I went to Florida in the winter. We studied insects in my school in Florida and in Grayling Elementary. By Jessica Wyss, Mr. Hatfield's fourth grade.

Alumni News

One hundred and forty persons attended our 35th Anniversary Dinner on Saturday, September 26, 1987 at the K of C Building. The buffet meal was delicious and highlighted by a specially decorated cake made by Lynn Schreiber Ferrigan (Class of '78) the Chef of the evening. Tressa Fenton gave the Invocation, after which she led us in singing "God Bless America." The decorative scheme was in keeping with the 150th Sesquicentennial of Michigan. Just before we were called to dinner, Bill Martin made a surprise presentation. Speaking for his Class of '57, Clara Sorenson was made Honorary member for help she had given on their Reunion weekend. She received an appropriate trophy with a graduate on the base.

After dinner, President Bill Joseph welcomed all those present. He gave us a resume of the work being done in our Alumni School Room at the Museum.

Our Honorees, Helen Isenhauer, Helen Isenhauer, Louise Feldhauser and Louise Feldhauser, both of the Class of '39 were introduced by Clara Sorenson. Each received identical plaques. Each responded with their appreciation. Present with Helen was her daughter, Grace, Class of '73 and her husband, Norman who is a brother to Louise. Double congratulations for these honored guests.

Something new for us was singing the current School Song and we didn't do too badly! We all knew Michigan, My Michigan and sang out loud and clear.

Recognition of classes was next on the program. Our Anniversary years were the two and sevens... From the Class of '22...Vella Herman Hill (also our oldest Alumna present). From the Class of '27, only a letter from Clarice Welch Hill...Class of '32...Evelyn Jordan Lozon... Irene Randolph Stephan... Marie Brown Post...Forrest Annis...Class of '42...Dick Rasmussen and Fay Christenson Bovee (had reunion earlier)...Class of '47, Frank May...Class of '52...Jerry Barber...Vivette Isenhauer

Davis...Louise Lutz Abbattello (had reunion earlier) Class of '57...Sandra SanCarter Martin and Billy Martin (had reunion earlier)...Class of '67...Marilyn Joseph Stancil (had reunion earlier)...Class of '72...Ernest Balch (Reunion earlier)...Grace Feldhauser, '73 was our youngest present. Isn't this marvelous to see so many reunions taking place?

Our Golden Class of '37 celebrated their 50th.

The class consisted of President, Bill Joseph, Don

Peterson, Ed Chalker, Marguerite Feldhauser Lucas, Herb Feldhauser, Mary Montour Bixler, Homer King, Sr., Kermit Charron, Margaret Buck Sergeant, Loretta Sorenson Charron, Monica Hewitt Fulvio, Virginia Skingley Millikin, Loretta and her husband, Sanford Charron observed a Golden Wedding date this year.

Teachers with us were Vella Hill, '22, Marie LaMotte Akers, '38, Elmer Fenton, '29, Joe Stripe, Faith

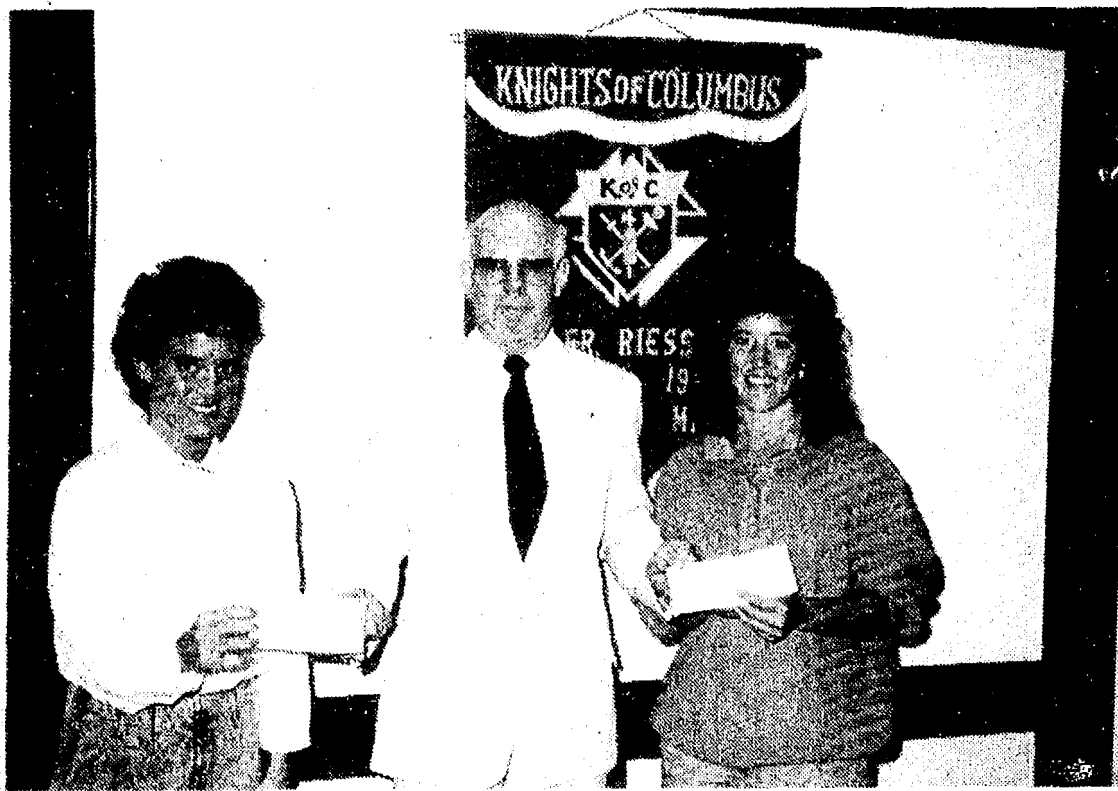

Stripe, Ruth Burrows Moore, '41, Fay Bovee, '42, Bob Bovee, Ruth Robertson, Katherine Funck and Marilyn Stancil. Our thanks to all of them.

Members of the board were asked to stand and be recognized. These are the people who conduct the business, plan the Homecoming for all of you, hold meetings all year-round... and the only paychecks they receive are made out to "Willing G.H.S. Alumni." We thank you.

To complete the program we stood and sang "Grayling Will Shine Tonight", as usual she did.

The Jolly Mixers of Houghton Lake furnished music for dancing.

K of C SCHOLARSHIPS — Pictured is Jerry Fagan, Grand Knight of Council 1982 of Grayling, awarding a $500 scholarship to Melissa McEvers and Beth Jones. Both Melissa and Beth are graduates of Crawford-AuSable Schools. Melissa is a Senior at Hope College in a Business Program and Beth is a Junior at Western Michigan University in a Special Education Program. This makes the 13th and 14th scholarship the Knights have awarded since 1980.

Middle School Notes

We are going to a new school. Three quarters of it is new. There are still old walls. We have new walls, windows, lockers, rooms, and a new gym. It has new ceilings to keep sound from going from room to room. They made the ceilings to keep heat in. It has carpeting, displays, bathrooms, tiling on the walls, and new paintings are in the stairwells.

All the fifth graders can fit in the new cafeteria. It is in between the gym and the classrooms. The principal's office is by the cafeteria. The library is on the second floor next to our classroom.

They moved the fifth grade from Frederic to Grayling. There are five fifth grade classrooms. The fifth grade are all on the second floor. By Ty Alma and Tristan Graham, Mrs. Fleming's fifth grade.

TO THE CUSTOMERS OF MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY

Case No. U-8870

NOTICE OF GAS COST RECOVERY HEARING

On September 25, 1987, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (MichCon) filed an application with the Michigan Public Service Commission (Commission) seeking approval of Gas Cost Recovery (GCR) factors to be reflected in its monthly billings to retail gas customers commencing with the January 1988 billing month and continuing through the December 1988 billing month. As defined in 1982 PA 304, a "gas cost recovery factor" is "that element of the rates to be charged for gas service to reflect gas supply costs incurred by a gas utility and made pursuant to a gas cost recovery clause incorporated in the rates or rate schedule of a gas utility." [MCLA 460.6h (1)] A GCR Clause has been incorporated in MichCon's rate schedule, as Rule 30, pursuant to the Commission's order in Case No. U-7479 dated September 20, 1983.

MichCon requests approval of monthly GCR Factors of $3.78 per Mcf ($3.71 per Dth) to its customers' bills for each of the 12 billing months of January 1988 through December 1988. MichCon represents that, based upon its 1987 estimated average GCR gas costs of $4.05 per Mcf, approval of the proposed 1988 GCR factors without the take-or-pay mechanism would lower the annual bill paid by an average residential customer using about 145 Mcf by approximately $40 per year. Pursuant to 1982 PA 304 MichCon requests approval, contingent upon approval by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) of a take-or-pay recovery mechanism applicable to MichCon's interstate suppliers, of an addition factor of $.50 per Mcf ($.49 per Dth). This factor is to be billed beginning with the first billing month coincident with the implementation of the approved take-or-pay recovery mechanism by any one of MichCon's interstate suppliers.

In support of its Application, MichCon has filed testimony and exhibits with the Commission giving details of its GCR Plan, including descriptions of the major contracts and gas supply arrangements entered into for the purpose of providing gas service during the calendar year 1988, and its five-year forecast of the gas supply requirements of its customers, its anticipated sources of supply and projections of gas supply costs in light of its gas supply purchase plan. The 1988 GCR Plan and five-year forecast discuss, among other things, a Supply and Reliability Agreement with ANR Pipeline Company in which MichCon commits to purchase minimum quantities of ANR system supply gas and released gas through 1992. ANR makes certain commitments with respect to supply and price in the agreement.

MichCon's filing, including its testimony and exhibits, is available for inspection at the offices of the Commission Secretary, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan 48909, and at the offices of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

A Utility Consumer Representation Fund has been created for the purpose of aiding the representation of residential utility customers in energy proceedings. Further information may be obtained from the Chairperson, Michigan Utility Consumer Participation Board, Department of Management and Budget, P.O. Box 30026, Lansing, Michigan 48909.

Jurisdiction in this matter is pursuant to Sections 1, 2, 6, 7 and 8 of 1909 PA 106, as amended; MCLA 460.551 et seq.; 1909 PA 300, as amended; MCLA 462.2 et seq.; Sections 3 and 4 of 1919 PA 419, as amended; MCLA 460.51 et seq.; Sections 4, 6 and 6a of 1939 PA 3, as amended; MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1982 PA 304; MCLA 460.6a, 460.6b, 460.6c, 460.6d, 460.6e, 460.6f and 460.6g; 1969 PA 306, as amended; MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1979 Administrative Code, R 460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that:

A. The initial hearing in this matter will be held at 9:00 a.m. on October 28, 1987, in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan, which hearing will be in the nature of a prehearing conference and will be held for the purpose of considering matters which will expedite this proceeding. Any interested persons may attend the hearing and participate, subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

B. "THE GAS COST RECOVERY FACTORS DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE HAVE BEEN REQUESTED BY MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY. THE MICHIGAN PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION MAY APPROVE, REJECT OR AMEND THOSE FACTORS."

C. Any person seeking to intervene, in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission, shall file with the Commission, on or before October 23, 1987, an original and 12 copies of a petition to intervene, together with Proof of Service upon Martin J. ## BUDDY'S WORKSHOP

Rerouting Water Lines

When our house was built, the plumbing contractor installed the water lines perpendicular to the floor joists. Before I can finish the basement these pipes will have to be buried. Can I just notch out the joists?

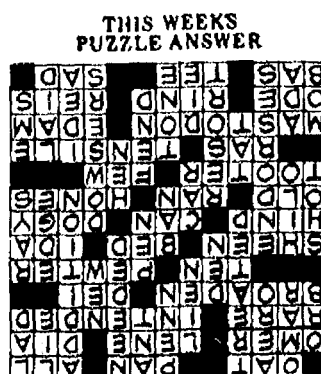

Before you notch out your floor joists, check with your local plumbing and building inspector. Local or state codes may not allow you to do this. If they don't, you still have a few options. You can drill through the joists and install the pipes that way. You may have a little trouble threading the pipe through your holes, but a little dishwashing liquid applied to the outside of the pipe will make the job easier.

Can you lay linoleum over another piece of linoleum? The old piece is adhered well, but there are a few places where the floor nailing is starting to show.

If nails from the floor are visible, they will be visible through the new linoleum, too. Re-nail your old floor and install 1/2" plywood over the old linoleum before you install your new flooring.

When refinishing a piece of furniture, what's the easiest way to paint knobs or other hardware a different color than the furniture itself?

Remove all the knobs and hardware and refinish the piece just as you normally would. Then attach the knobs to a large piece of cardboard and paint them any color you wish. This is especially good if the knobs are intricate and spray painting them will be easier than using a brush.

Resource Review

Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Early ecological studies of stream ecosystems failed to recognize the importance of detritus (tiny bits of leaves and other vegetable matter which are swept along by the current) in the natural balance of such systems. This changed in the 60's and 70's when detritus became recognized as a major food source for aquatic insects and other stream vegetarians. Robert Boyle, in an article in a recent National Wildlife magazine says that the amount of such food in a stream has a great bearing on the quality of fishing in that stream.

Calling the falling of autumn leaves "one of the great transfers of energy on the face of the planet", Boyle explains that the carbon contained in leaves, pine needles and other vegetable matter is the primary food source for numerous insect larvae (stonefly, caddis fly, May fly, etc.). It is well known that such larvae are major links in the food chain upon which trout depend.

Some studies show that the lifestyle of the stonefly Pteroperla maria has evolved in conjunction with the annual fall influx of leaves into a river. Although the insects eggs are laid in early summer, they do not hatch until the leaves drop in September or October. Other studies show that where detritus is limited the insects are limited and the fish population is limited.

The next time you are on a stream or river, notice the tiny fragments of vegetable matter as they drift by near the bottom. Look upon them as you would a pasture which supports a herd of cattle, and marvel at nature's ways.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

On November 11, 1941, hurricane force winds destroyed about half of the 86 acres of the Virgin Pines. Why in one day were those winds able to do what similar winds had not been able to do for hundreds of years?

One of the requests made by Mrs. Hartwick when she donated the land for the Hartwick Pines State Park in October of 1927 was that a new road be built into the area; M-93 was the result of that request. However, M-93 cut across a corner of the Virgin Pines through the swampy ground adjacent to Hartwick Lake. In order to stabilize the roadbed, a great amount of muck was removed from the route the road would take. The muck was replaced with materials which could be compacted to support the roadway. The soil which replaced the muck was packed to such an extent that water collecting on the northwest side of M-93 could not follow the centuries-old drainage pattern through the swamp to the southeast of M-93. In fact, M-93 was a dam which held water, which in turn loosened the hold of the white pine roots in the soil of the low area. When the November gales came, they followed the avenue provided by M-93 through the pines. The winds were able to get a full swipe at the flank of the pines whose roots were not able to hold in the water-softened soil. The end result was a loss of 450,000 board feet of timber.

Poet's Corner

Hurried Lives

What happened to the good old days,
When folks had time to smile?
Back then if you met an old friend,
They could stop and talk awhile.

Now everyone is in a hurry.
They have so many places to go,
So many things they have to do,
That their pace can never slow.

You meet a friend you haven't seen in years,
But there's no time to sit and talk.
Seems everyone is on the run.
They can't slow to a walk.

There's no time to stop and rest awhile,
As they hurry on their way.
They only seem to wish
There were more hours in a day.

But I'll go along at my slower pace,
Take time to smell the flowers.
One of these days I can visit their graves
And talk to them for hours.

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY

Case No. U-8854

NOTICE OF HEARING

On August 14, 1987, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (Applicant) filed its application for approval and authorization to provide gas transportation services to customers located within Applicant's service territory pursuant to the terms and conditions of long term special gas transportation agreements.

Applicant is a Michigan corporation with its principal offices at 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan. Applicant's intrastate utility operation, the distribution of natural gas, including gas transportation services, to approximately one million customers in its Detroit, northern, and western districts, all within the State of Michigan, is subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission.

Applicant represents that since March, 1986, it has been engaged in gas transportation allowing customers located within its service area to utilize its system for transportation of gas secured from third parties. Gas transportation has been and is being performed pursuant to individual agreements between Applicant and its customers for initial terms of up to 3 years.

Applicant also states that approximately 80% or more of its gas transportation customers have dual fuel capability which affords them the option to switch from gas usage to an alternative fuel and avoid any contribution toward Applicant's system fixed costs. In addition to the competition from alternative fuels, with respect to many of these transportation customers, Applicant states that it is facing another potential threat of load loss from proposals to bypass its distribution system altogether by direct interconnections between end-users in its service area and interstate pipelines transporting the end-user's gas.

In order to enhance the marketability of its transportation services, Applicant represents that it is necessary to be more responsive to those large volume customers who desire longer term gas transportation certainty in the conduct of their operations and in respect to their independent gas supply contract and procurement planning and practices.

Applicant represents that its new special gas transportation agreements are designed to accommodate both the customers' and Applicant's longer term needs. Longer term agreements have been reached with a number of customers who are eligible for Rate Schedules 6, 7, 8, 9A, 9B or 9C. The agreements are based on the master agreement, a copy of which was filed as Appendix A to the application in this case. The principal terms of the master Agreement are summarized as follows:

a. Term: With two exceptions, the agreements are for a term of 5 years from date of Commission approval. There are two agreements for 10 years related to cogeneration projects. Approval in this case is sought at the same time the Commission issues a final order in MichCon's rate case, MPSC Case No. U-8812.

b. Price: As is the case with its current transportation contracts, the contract price is made up of various components:

Rate Schedule No.	Monthly Service Charge	Transportation Charge*
6	$ 2,500	76¢/Mcf
7	2,500	57¢/Mcf
8	1,000	41¢/Mcf
9A	10,000	58¢/Mcf or MMBtu
9B	20,000	56¢/Mcf or MMBtu
9C	50,000	48¢/Mcf or MMBtu

(*The transportation charge under the long term special gas transportation agreements will be equal to the lowest of the listed rate, the applicable rate schedule distribution charge, or the transportation rate schedule charges as applicable to the customer. The transportation of coal displacement volumes is at negotiated rates.)

(2) A capacity reservation charge equal to the Annual Contract Quantity (ACQ) times $1 per Mcf or MMBtu and divided by 12. The customer receives a credit of $1 for each Mcf or MMBtu of gas delivered. The capacity reservation charges are refunded at the end of the contract year subject to reduction of $1 per equivalent Mcf or MMBtu volume of alternate fuel use by the customer during the period.

c. Storage: 10¢ per Mcf or MMBtu per month for the storage of any month-end balance in excess of 10% of ACQ.

d. Monthly Curtailment Priority Status Charge: Availability of system supply gas for sale to the customer is determined in accordance with one of the six priorities it chooses; the lowest priority (Category 12) at no charge, the highest (Category 7) available for $1000 per month plus $1 per Mcf or MMBtu of ACQ divided by 12.

e. Standby Service: Not available.

Applicant has negotiated 91 long term special gas transportation agreements with end-users covering volumes of nearly 50 Bcf of gas annually. Applicant has filed copies of those agreements as Appendix B to its application. Any changes from the master agreement form are generally set forth in an attachment to the individual agreement. The agreements are available for inspection at the Commission's Offices or by contacting Mr. Dennis O'Connell, Senior Attorney, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

The Association of Businesses Advocating Tariff Equity (ABATE) has filed a motion to consolidate this Proceeding and Applicant's proposed gas transportation program, MPSC Case No. U-8635, and Applicant's current general rate case, MPSC Case No. U-8812. It bases its motion on the interrelationship between the long term special gas transportation agreements and Applicant's other general rate and gas transportation proceedings before the Commission.

The contracts, by their own terms, require Commission approval. Jurisdiction in this matter is pursuant to 1929 PA 9, as amended, MCLA 463.101 et seq.; 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq.; 1939 PA 3, as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1979 Mich. Admin. Code, R 460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that:

A. A hearing in this case will be held at 9:00 a.m. on October 19, 1987, in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan, which hearing will be in the nature of a prehearing conference and will be held for the purpose of exploring and, if possible, agreeing upon matters which will expedite this proceeding. In addition, ABATE's motion to consolidate this case with Case Nos. U-8635 and U-8812 will be heard.

B. Any person seeking to intervene, in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission, shall file with the Commission on or before October 14, 1987, an original and 12 copies of a petition to intervene, together with proof of service upon Applicant.

Subparagraph (2) of said Rule 11 provides as follows:

"(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioner's alleged right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted." (Emphasis added.)

The Commission will require strict compliance with the above-quoted rule.

C. Persons seeking to intervene shall file any responses to ABATE's Motion To Consolidate, as discussed in the body of this notice, on or before October 16, 1987.

D. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company shall, on or before October 5, 1987, file written direct testimony of its proposed witnesses and its proposed exhibits. In the event this case is consolidated with Case Nos. U-8635 and U-8812, such written direct testimony and exhibits shall constitute supplemental testimony in Case No. U-8812.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

The Gospel of John

Part 5 - The Saving Christ

If humans by nature reject Jesus Christ, then who can be saved? How does one know if he has received Jesus Christ and been saved? Who is responsible for salvation, God or man?

To become a member of a physical family, most of us had to be born. To become a member of God's family, all of us must be born-again. (John 3:1-7). To have personal assurance of this new spiritual birth, one must receive Jesus Christ as his God and savior. There is no power or assurance of salvation to anyone who refuses to accept Jesus Christ as God and savior. "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." To receive Jesus Christ means to fully trust Him as your savior who died for your sins and was resurrected to give you eternal life. It means you are willing to confess Him as your God and savior from the bottom of your heart. "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in the heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9, 10).

Just as we had nothing to do with our natural birth, we also have nothing to do with our spiritual birth. The above description of receiving Jesus Christ gives us as access to salvation. We turn to God because He has quickened us by His Spirit and power, not by our own efforts. "Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." (John 1:13). We do not inherit salvation or saving faith from our family, it is "not of blood." We do not get salvation from "the will of the flesh", it is not any decision of our natural flesh or self which saves us. We are not saved by "the will of man" be it parents, priest, friends or relatives. No decision of the will of any human being can save us. Salvation is all of God, and therefore all of grace.

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." (Eph. 2:8, 9). If you have no assurance of salvation, or desire to be saved, you should tremble at the prospect of spending eternity in the flames of Hell. Cast yourself upon the mercy of God and cry out for His sovereign work in your heart and life. Read and re-read this Gospel of John through pleading with God to grant you saving faith unto eternal life. Don't lose your soul through foolish pride.

The Deacon's Speakin'

Deacon Bob Nolan

People come to worship for lots of reasons. Some come out of a sense of obligation — they think of it as something they should do. Some come because their parents always taught them to — taught them that it was the right thing to do — and they have always just done it. Others come to see or meet friends. As one person said, "that's where almost all of our close friends are." Or another family said, "We just moved to the area and we wanted to meet some new people. We wanted to make some new friends. What better place to do that than at Church?"

Some reasons for worshiping are more basic. "I want to hear God's word for me. I want to understand what the Bible says and know it better." Or, "I need to be reassured about God's love. When sometimes I think that nobody cares, I need to hear again that God cares." Or, "I come basically for hope — in a sometimes gloomy world I need to hear about the hope that Christ offers." Some people come to Church for strength. One man put it quite directly, "I come because I need my spiritual batteries recharged each Sunday so I can make it through another week."

The Christian Gospel is reassuring. It is the story that keeps reminding us of what Good News we have from God. It is like the refrain of that old favorite hymn, "I love to tell the story." "Do you remember the words? 'I love to tell the story, I'll be my theme in glory, to tell the old, old story, of Jesus and His love.'" The Gospel is the story of God's love for us.

Thank God for the stories of the Good News we have received.

"I assign my mind to think the thoughts that are pleasing in your sight."

"I assign my eyes to see the beautiful and good in my fellowman, as well as the wonders of your world."

"I assign my ears to hear the music of love for everyone."

"I assign my voice to record only the best of words to praise your name."

"I assign my hands for service in your name."

Essay Winners Like Making Friends at 4-H

This year to help 4-H celebrate National 4-H Week, we held an essay contest called "What 4-H Means to Me". The winners are: Tosha Mowrey, age 13, and Danyell Galvani, age 10. They will be receiving scholarships that can be used toward a 4-H event of their choice; such as Camp Timbers, Exploration Days and Peer Plus Workshops.

What 4-H means to me is a way of making new friends. Making new friends means a new friendship. Also, the leaders are always kind and caring. 4-H also means caring for others as they care for you. 4-H groups and leaders have many responsibilities, such as; making new ideas, making decisions, and most of all making friends. 4-H also means fun! You can have outings and writer letters to other clubs. 4-H can also mean learning for example: First aid, use your resources wisely, and show respect for yourself and others. 4-H mostly means joining groups that help you decide your future goals. -Tosha Mowrey that you can join! Like their cooking club where you learn how to prepare different foods and how to formally set a table. Or there's a rabbit club where you can learn to feed and groom a rabbit.

You can also learn how to swim. With 4-H swimming lessons you will learn how to do a back float, a breast stroke, even a back stroke. And if you like sports you can play 4-H soccer, where you learn how to play soccer and compete with other teams. There is also a 4-H T-ball where you can develop skills and go on to Little League.

My dream has been to become an exchange student and when I become a teenager I can become one through 4-H's international club. Thanks for everything 4-H. -Danyell Galvani.

Elementary Notes

We are learning about insects in our science class.

Mr. Hatfield told us about insects. And we read about them in the books. We drew pictures of grasshoppers and we put them on one of our bulletin boards.

Insects have three main body parts. Every grown-up insect has six legs, two antennae. Insects are larvae before they are adult. Then they make a cocoon and they stay in there awhile. They break out and become grown-up. Some insects for protection spit things at their enemies. Some insects are protected by their color. Some have protection by jumping away. By Corey Northrop, Mr. Hatfield's fourth grade.

We've been studying about worms and insects. Pupils brought them in. Some brought in worms and caterpillars. We watched them. And Aaron Perrin's caterpillar turned into a chrysalis. We had another caterpillar in our room but it died. We have science books and we read out of them. We talked about them a lot. We had a movie in our classroom about conservation. We have a bee's nest in our classroom. It's hanging from the ceiling. By Angie Floriano, Mrs. McEvers' third grade.

City Council Proceedings

Members present: Golnick, Latuszek, Sloan, Thompson, White.

Members absent: None.

Also in attendance: Jerry W. Morford, City Manager; Allen V. Schreiner, City Treasurer; Judy Weaver, C.S.I.P.; David Sabin, City Attorney; Bruce Gillis, C.S.I.P.

Motion by Golnick, supported by White that the minutes of the meeting of August 17, 1987 be approved as presented. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried.

Citizens who wish to speak. None.

Communications were received and noted.

From C.C.T.A. re: Meeting Minutes of August 12, 1987.

From City Treasurer re: July Finance Report.

Dated August 27, 1987 from Richards & Associates re: Sewage Treatment Facility Status.

From C.S.I.P. re: Downtown Development Authority. Ms. Judy Weaver and Mr. Bruce Gillis attended to present the letter requesting Council to consider formation of a D.D.A. Mr. Morford requested Council to bring the matter back at the next meeting to allow time for research. Ms. Latuszek indicated that she had no reservations about that approach. Council agreed to place on the next agenda.

From M.M.L. re: Legislative Bulletins.

From City Manager re: Economic Development article in the Detroit News.

Old Business.

City Attorney Sabin was present to discuss Ordinance 87-1 with the Council. He stated that his opinion has not changed after reading the material furnished to him by Mr. Arthur Thayer since the last meeting. He explained that initiative and referendum is restricted to a legislative act not an administrative action. He felt that revising two (2) sections of Ordinance No. 11 and renumbered to Ordinance 87-1 did not constitute a legislative action. The amendment did not change the basic plan of Ordinance No. 11 and consequently was an administrative action.

Mr. Sabin also detailed for Council several other reasons for his opinion based on additional research he has done. These relate to the differences between state legislative actions and adoption of local ordinances. Mr. Sabin will issue a letter to Mr. Thayer and City Council explaining his oral presentation. There were no questions or comments from the audience.

New Business. None.

Reports of City Manager. Mr. Morford reported on the following:

Street Light at Eagles Club.

Weed Ordinance Enforcement.

Volunteer Recognition. To be discussed at September 21st Meeting.

Police Computer use: To be discussed at a future meeting. Reports of Council Members.

Mr. Sloan asked about recent repairs at the Sewer Lift Station. Mr. Morford explained the problem and noted that the repairs were complete.

Adjournment.

Moved by Golnick, supported by Sloan that the meeting be adjourned. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried. The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

Jerry W. Morford
City Manager & City Clerk.

Laura's Bath Shoppe & Main Street Florals Offers Exquisite Gifts, Reasonable Prices

Business

by Don Geiss

When a husband is in the plumbing business, it naturally follows that there is a need for accessories that round out the facilities in a bathroom and so it was that Laura's Bath Shoppe came into existence.

Laura Schans opened her bath shop in 1977 in the front of husband Tom's Plumbing building but while the business was thriving there came a need for more expansion. Laura said that there also appeared to be an advantage in locating in the middle of the main business section of town.

And so... in October of 1982 the move was made to the present location. In the process of operating the bath accessories business, Laura decided that there was also a need for an additional florist and so Main Street Florals became a reality in the same building.

In 1984 Schans purchased the building outright and expanded the operation to include the entire building rather than a portion as had been the case under the lease arrangement.

Today the business furnishes a line of exquisite gifts in addition to the fine bath items and beautiful flowers. Among the gifts or bath accessories are place mats, napkins, ceramic items, pottery, plaques and pictures. One plaque that caught our eye said, "I love a man who has dishpan hands".

Among the bath furnishings are shower curtains, toilet seats, soaps and towels. Schans said that gifts and bath items run from under $1 to $50. She said, "A person can come in and purchase an item at a reasonable price." She commented that there is no delivery charge to the funeral home or hospital.

Two of the current popular items are bathtub pillows and a plunger that has an imitation duck head at the end of the handle. Schans also pointed to a plaque which stated "Don't question your wife's judgment, look who she married." She also pointed out a card to go with a gift of flowers that shows a man crawling out of a doghouse.

The Schans' daughters have also taken an active part in the business as the three of them, Andrea 16, Joell 14 and Valerie 12, each worked there beginning at an early age. Andrea has for some time undertaken to dress up the window during the Milltown Festival. She has also served as a live mannequin in the window during the fete. She along with her sisters dress up in the Milltown theme each year.

As far as unusual happenings, Schans said that soon after she opened downtown in the floral business someone called and asked for a bouquet of dead flowers to be sent to someone. She said that for two reasons the order was not filled. First of all, she commented, there were no dead flowers and secondly that type of prank did not appeal to her.

The business has four employees with an additional part time person due to start at the end of the week. Schans said that while they have a large local clientele there are many summer customers as well. Often, she said, visitors will stop in and ask whether Andrea will be acting as the live mannequin for Milltown the following year.

A new cooler for the flowers was added this year and that is about the final touch for the store, Schans said. "We are open Monday through Saturday from 9:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m."

And so Laura's Bath Shoppe and Main Street Florals have become a fixture in downtown Grayling. Its Milltown theme storefront and charming decor inside signal to residents and visitors that a pleasant shopping experience is to be had by stepping through the door.

Georgia-Pacific Open House

GUIDED TOUR — More than 200 persons attended the Open House Saturday and most of them donned hard hats for tours on the facility that came on line last December. The plant employs about 21 persons and many were on hand Saturday to explain areas in the plant.

CONTROL ROOM — A resin plant employee explains the control room operations for the new plant. Almost all the operations can be controlled automatically from this room.

LABORATORY — Diona Cerelli, of Frederic, asks questions about the testing of resins in the laboratory testing room at the Georgia-Pacific resin plant.
